What Does Workforce Housing Look Like?

What Needs to Change?

September 14th - 6:00 PM

Kearsarge Regional Professional Development Center
165 Main Street

SEE EXAMPLES, HEAR PERSPECTIVES AND LEARN HOW WE CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

Please join us as local and regional professional developers and architects present their experience and perspectives on generating successful Workforce Housing.

The New London Housing Commission is pleased to welcome participating panelists:

- Andrew Winter, Executive Director of Twin Pines Housing Trust, the only non-profit developer providing affordable multi-family housing in the Upper Valley, actively operating since inception in 1990.
- Sheldon Pennoyer, Founder of Sheldon Pennoyer Architects, an award-winning design firm based in Concord, NH, since 1987 specializing in the design of regionally appropriate homes and institutional multi-family projects well-integrated within their surrounding landscapes.
- Harry Snow, Owner of Snow Building Construction, a family construction business growing since 1979 to become one of the largest and most respected residential construction and land development contractors in the New London area.

Moderator: Mark Fougere AICP, Fougere Planning & Development Inc.

For the purpose of engaging conversation, we are encouraging those interested to attend in person.
