

Town of New London
POLICE DEPARTMENT

Chief of Police
Emily M. Cobb

JOB OPENING – POLICE OFFICER

The Town of New London is a vibrant community in the Kearsarge-Lake Sunapee region with a population of approximately 4,500 residents. New London is home to Colby-Sawyer College, New London Hospital, a robust business sector, and has many civic-minded organizations. There are ample ways to enjoy all that New London has to offer, including many recreational activities such as various walking/hiking trails, multiple bodies of water, and more. New London is also home to the Kearsarge Regional Elementary School, which is part of SAU 65, a top-notch school district. There is a real sense of community in New London, and the police department is no exception.

The New London Police Department protects the town 24 hours a day/7 days a week. This full-time patrol position schedule includes 12- and 10-hour shifts, with opportunity for special details and/or overtime. The patrol work in New London is active, with many opportunities for community engagement and law enforcement. A patrol officer's responsibilities include general patrol functions and investigatory police work.

Applicants must be 21 years old, possess a High School diploma or equivalent, and be a United States citizen. A related college degree or military experience is beneficial. A valid driver's license is required. Applicants may be required to pass a written test, physical agility test, oral board interview and extensive background investigation. This may also include a polygraph test, psychological test, and drug testing. The background will be conducted in accordance with New Hampshire Police Standards & Training Council standards.

The Town of New London offers a great salary and benefits package. The pay range is $52,436 - $74,131 annually; starting pay is dependent on experience.
